Both sides recalled Malta's support to Kuwait during its invasion back in the 1990s through Malta's presidency of the United Nations General Assembly, with the Ambassador noting that this remains appreciated by Kuwait till this day. The Speaker added that with its Mediterranean vocation at heart, Malta has over the past decades maintained excellent relations with the Arab world making Malta a credible interlocutor.

The Speaker and the Ambassador also spoke about other areas of cooperation between the countries, including the appreciable number of Kuwaiti students studying medicine in Malta.
