PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

The outgoing Swedish Ambassador to Malta Andres Jato pays a farewell call on the Speaker

The outgoing Ambassador of Sweden Andres Jato paid a farewell call on the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives David Agius. The Deputy Speaker, whilst auguring the Swedish Ambassador the very best in his future endeavours, thanked the Ambassador for his work to sustain and improve the bilateral relations between Malta and Sweden.

Deputy Speaker Agius and Ambassador Jato recognised the importance of looking forward in the search for new avenues where both countries can strengthen past successes which result in mutual benefit to respect people. In this regard they identified in particular the field of green technologies.

Deputy Speaker Agius noted that the setting up of a Parliamentary Friendship Group between the Maltese Parliament and the Swedish Riksdag would provide the opportunities to launch discussions on possible areas of cooperation between the two countries.

Both dignitaries agreed that it is equally important to remain optimistic and proactive by investing in windows of opportunity that cultural diversity and intercultural dialogue provide, adding that these exchanges could be strengthened with the physical establishment of diplomatic representations in both countries.
