shall not require authorisation in terms of this Act but shall be required to apply for registration by the Authority under this article, and no company shall act as a trustee for a family trust unless it is so registered. The registration process shall be established by rules issued by the Authority under article 52(3) of this Act and trustees shall comply with any registration requirements and conditions imposed by the Authority:

Provided that for the purposes of this sub-article, a "family trust" shall mean a trust created to hold property settled by the settlor or settlors for the present and future needs of family members or family dependants who are definite and can be ascertained:

Provided further that for the purposes of this article, rules issued by the Authority in terms of article 52 of this Act may further define the meaning of the terms "family members" and "family dependants".

23. Immediately after article 43B of the principal Act, there shall be added the following new heading and new article 43C:

Addition of new heading and new article 43C to the principal Act.

"DUTY OF AUDITORS

Auditor's duty to report.

43C. (1) An auditor of a trustee authorised in terms of the Act, shall have the duty to report immediately to the Authority any fact or decision of which he becomes aware in his capacity as auditor of such trustee which:

- (a) is likely to lead to a serious qualification or refusal of the auditor's report on the accounts of such trustee; or
- (b) constitutes or is likely to constitute a material breach of the legal or regulatory requirements applicable to trustees under this Act; or
- (c) gravely impairs the trustee's ability to continue as a going concern; or
- (d) relates to any other matter which may be prescribed:

Provided that the matters prescribed in this paragraph may include matters related to any interested person other than the trustee.

(2) The auditor of a corporate trustee shall report to the Authority any facts or decision, as specified in sub-article (1), regarding any person having close links with such trustee of which he becomes aware in his capacity as auditor of the trustee or of the person having such close links.

(3) No duty (including the duty of professional secrecy) to which an auditor of the trustee may be subject, shall be regarded as contravened by reason of his communicating in good faith to the Authority, whether or not in response to a request from it, any information or opinion on a matter of which the auditor has become aware in his capacity as auditor of that trustee and which is relevant to any function of the Authority under the provisions of the Act or is required to be communicated by virtue of sub-article (1)."

Amendment of article 44 of the principal Act.

24. Article 44 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) the whole article shall be renumbered as sub-article (1) thereof;

(b) paragraph (d) of sub-article (1) thereof, as renumbered, shall be renumbered as paragraph (e);

(c) immediately after paragraph (c) of sub-article (1) thereof, as renumbered, there shall be added the following new paragraph (d):

"(d) be accompanied by a programme of operations setting out such matters as may be prescribed by the Authority from time to time;" and

(e) immediately after sub-article (1) thereof as renumbered, there shall be added the following new sub-article:

"(2) Where close links exist between an applicant and any other person, the Authority shall:

(a) only grant a licence if it considers that such close links do not prevent it from exercising its supervisory functions; and

(b) refuse to grant such a licence if it considers that the laws, regulations or administrative provisions of any country outside Malta governing one or more persons with whom the applicant has close links, or their enforcement prevent the effective exercise of its supervisory functions."

25. Article 46 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows: Amendment of article 46 of the principal Act.

(a) in sub-article (1) of the Maltese version thereof, for the words "46. (1)", there shall be substituted the words "46."; and

(b) for paragraph (d) thereof, there shall be substituted the following:

"(d) if the authorised trustee does not commence activities pursuant to its authorisation within twelve months of its issue or within such other period as may be specified in the authorisation or has ceased to provide such service; or".

26. Immediately after article 46A of the principal Act, there shall be added the following new article 46B: Addition of new article 46B to the principal Act.

"Power of the competent authority to protect the public interest.

46B. (1) Without prejudice to the powers conferred to the competent authority under article 46, the competent authority may, where it is satisfied that sufficient circumstances exist, proceed to take any one or more of the following measures:

(a) require the trustee to take forthwith such steps as the competent authority may consider necessary to rectify or remedy the matter;

(b) appoint a person to advise the trustee in the proper conduct of its business;

(c) appoint a person to take charge of the assets of the trustee, or any portion thereof, for the purposes of safeguarding the interests of the shareholders or any creditors of the trustee as well as any other interested person;

(d) appoint a person to assume control of the business of the trustee either to carry on that business or to carry out such function or functions in respect of such business or part thereof, as the competent authority may direct;

(e) fix the remuneration to be paid by the trustee to any person appointed under this article;

(f) require the trustee to submit a financial recovery plan as may be determined in any rules issued by the Authority, if it considers that the interests of the creditors or other interested persons are likely to be prejudiced owing to a deterioration in the financial position of the trustee;

(g) do such other act or require the doing of such other act as it may deem appropriate in the circumstances; and having proceeded in any one or more of the manners aforesaid, the competent authority may further proceed in any one or more such manners, whether in addition thereto or in substitution therefor.

(2) Where a person is appointed by the competent authority -

(a) under sub-article (1)(b), it shall be the duty of the trustee to act in accordance with the advice given by such person unless and until the competent authority, on representation made to it, directs otherwise;

(b) under sub-article (1)(c), the trustee shall deliver to such person all the assets of which he is placed in charge, and all the powers, functions and duties of the trustee in respect of those assets, whether exercisable by the trustee or otherwise, shall be exercisable by and vest in the person appointed under the said paragraph to the exclusion of any other person;

(c) under sub-article (1)(d), the trustee shall submit its business to the control of such person and shall provide him with such facilities as he may require the trustee to provide him to carry on that business or to carry out the functions assigned to him under the said paragraph; and all the powers, functions and duties of the trustee, shall be exercisable by and vest in him to the exclusion of any other person.

(3) The competent authority may, where it feels is in the best interest of the public so to do, make or issue public statements or notices giving warnings or information about any action taken in terms of article 46, article 46A and this article.

(4) The competent authority may require the trustee concerned to pay all the expenses of, and incidental to, the publication or issue of public statements or notices pursuant to this article or such part thereof as it may deem appropriate; and any sum so due shall be recoverable by the competent authority in the same manner as an administrative penalty imposed under this Act."

27. Article 51 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

Amendment of article 51 of the principal Act.

(a) in sub-article (1) thereof, for the words "authorisation, condition, obligation", there shall be substituted the words "authorisation, registration, condition, obligation";

(b) in sub-article (5) thereof, for the words "without being authorised to do so", there shall be substituted the words "without being authorised or registered to do so"; and

(c) in sub-article (7) thereof, for the words "in article 43A", there shall be substituted the words "in article 43A, or the conditions imposed by the Authority upon registration in accordance with article 43B of this Act,".

28. Immediately after sub-article (2) of article 52, there shall be added the following new sub-article (3):

Amendment of article 52 of the principal Act.

A 216

"(3) The Authority may also issue rules to regulate trustees which are subject to a registration procedure in terms of article 43B. The rules may lay down additional requirements and conditions in relation to the activities of such trustees, their responsibilities to the Authority, adherence to a code of conduct, payment of fees and any other matter as the Authority may consider appropriate."

Amendment of article 55 of the principal Act.

29. Sub-article (2) of article 55 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) in paragraph (a) thereof, for the words "issue of an authorisation", there shall be substituted the words "issue of an authorisation or registration;" and

(b) in paragraph (b) thereof, for the words "condition of an authorisation", there shall be substituted the words "condition of an authorisation or registration".

Amendment of article 57 of the principal Act.

30. Article 57 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) sub-article (1) thereof shall be amended as follows:

(i) in paragraph (c) thereof -

(aa) for the words "a fee is not provided by this Act:", there shall be substituted the words "a fee is not provided by this Act;"; and

(bb) the proviso immediately following the words "a fee is not provided by this Act;" shall be deleted;

(p) regulate the registration, conservation and access of notarial trust deeds as referred to in article 43A of this Act;

(q) regulate the matters in relation to the registration by the Authority of notaries acting as qualified persons, including the powers and duties of such qualified persons and any information which they may be required to submit to the Authority, and to establish any fees payable to the Authority in respect of the registration and the supervision thereof;

(r) exempt any activities or classes of persons from the requirements in article 43(12) and to impose conditions it may deem fit for eligibility for exemption;

(s) regulate any matters in connection with the use of trusts for persons with disability, including the conduct, duties and other obligations of persons acting as trustees of such trusts;

(t) transpose, implement and give effect to the provisions and requirements of Directives, Regulations and any other legislative measures of the European Union requiring transposition and, or implementation, as they may be amended from time to time, including any implementing measures that have been or may be issued thereunder and relating to licence holders and others as may be specified therein or to any other matter falling within the terms of this Act, and for this purpose to provide that any provision in any other law shall not apply to matters falling under the regulations; and"; and

(b) immediately after sub-article (2) thereof, there shall be added the following new sub-articles:

"(3) Regulations made under this article may be made subject to such exemptions or conditions as may be specified therein, may make different provision for different cases, circumstances or purposes and may give to the Authority such powers of adaptation of the regulations as may also be so specified.

(4) Where regulations have been made in terms of this article, the Authority may issue Rules within the meaning of article 52 of this Act for the better carrying out and to better implement the provisions of the regulations.

(5) Regulations made under this article may impose punishments or other penalties in respect of any contravention or failure of compliance not exceeding a fine (multa) of one hundred and fifty thousand euro (€150,000) or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment."

Addition of new heading and new article 58 to the principal Act.

31. Immediately after article 57 of the principal Act, there shall be added the following new heading and article 58:

"TRANSITORY PROVISIONS

"Transitory provisions.

58. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Trusts and Trustees (Amendment) Act, 2013, trustees and providers of other fiduciary services in possession of an authorisation before the date of coming into force of the amendments contained in the Act above-mentioned shall take all necessary measures to comply with the provisions of articles 43(4)(i)(e), 43(4)(ii)(e), 43(13)(i)(e), 43(13)(ii)(d) and article 43C within six months from the said date.
