PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Speaker of the House of Representatives receives the members of the Malta-MUN

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Anglu Farrugia, has this morning received a courtesy visit by the President of the Malta-Model United Nations Society, Mr Warren Ciantar.

During the said visit, Mr Speaker was presented with the resolutions emanating from the 1st edition of the international Malta-MUN Conference, which conference and workshops had been held at the Parliament of Malta between the 18th and 20th of September 2015.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, thanked Mr Ciantar and those supporting the MaltaMUN Society, especially since this society endeavours to promote and stimulate the continuation of quality educational programs that bring together the next generation of international leaders.

Speaker Farrugia recalled parts from his address on September 2015 to the Malta Chamber of Commerce, where he stated that the UN, as a global organisation which transcends national boundaries, is based on four main pillars, thus being the establishment of peace throughout the world; the develop of friendly relations among nations, assistance to deprived populations and the promotion to respect each other's rights and freedom. Therefore, acting as a facilitating pivot and helping nations achieve these goals.

The Speaker Anglu Farrugia stated that the promise has been kept and he is committed to forward the resolutions to the Maltese MPs. This will be done not only for information purposes, but also for the Honourable Members to have access to the feedback received from young people on some of the most pressing issues they are often called upon to deliberate and take legislative decisions as Maltese legislators and policy setters.
