MINISTRY FOR HOME AFFAIRS
AND NATIONAL SECURITY

Call for Specialist Services

The Government of Malta, acting through the Ministry for Home Affairs and National Security, is seeking an adviser who would provide professional advice in the design of an Individual Investor Programme which allows for the grant of citizenship to foreign individuals who contribute through investment or otherwise to the economic development of Malta and who would take a leading role in the set-up, implementation, operation and international promotion of the programme by entering into a public service concession contract.

Government is inviting bids from organisations with relevant experience who are interested in providing specialist services in relation to the above.

Interested parties are invited to contact the Ministry for Home Affairs and National Security, by 5th July, 2013, using the contact details set out below, to receive the necessary documentation after first entering into a confidentiality agreement and remitting a non-refundable collection fee of €125. The Ministry will forward details of the submission requirements relative to the project to enable interested parties to formulate their proposals.

Proposals will be received in the format specified in the bid document by not later than noon of Wednesday, 31st July, 2013.
