PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Ambassador of Lithuania meets Deputy Speaker

Ambassador of the Republic of Lithuania Ričardas Šlepavičius paid a courtesy visit on Deputy Speaker Claudette Buttigieg.

Deputy Speaker Buttigieg and Ambassador Šlepavičius discussed issues of cooperation between the two countries, particularly life sciences, agriculture, financial services, and tourism. They noted that tourism was picking up, with around 10,000 Lithuanians visiting Malta in 2016.

Deputy Speaker Buttigieg referred to the English language teaching schools as well as Valletta being the European Capital of Culture 2018.

Ambassador Šlepavičius recalled the excellent work being carried out by their Honorary Consul in Malta, Anthony Zahra.

Ambassador Šlepavičius was accompanied by Arnas Guzenas, Third Secretary at the Lithuanian Embassy, Rome.

Ray Scicluna, Clerk of the House, was present for the meeting.
